Blue Lagoon is named after the picturesque bay on the third biggest island of the Maltese archipelago, Comino, which is famous for its white sandy seabed and transparent turquoise waters. Blue Lagoon is a Belgian-style wheat beer brewed with orange peel and coriander. Pale straw in colour, it's an extremely refreshing beer. Freshly ground coriander, citrus peel, and a distinctively fruity yeast character lead the way. This is followed by a smooth body, light acidity, and lively carbonation that makes it a great thirst quencher.
